

Summer 2021 Internship Program

American Paintings & Sculpture and Decorative Arts Curatorial Internship

Our American Paintings & Sculpture and Decorative Arts department is seeking an Intern to assist with researching and writing labels for our upcoming re-installation of the American modernism galleries opening March 2022. The goal of this reinstallation is to re-center the canon of American modernism (1900-c.1945) to feature works by underrepresented artists” and to highlight the contributions of immigrant, migrant, and Native artists.

Responsibilities

- Compile bibliographies
- Source books and archives for research
- Draft label copy for a number of works to be included in the re-installation

Preferred Qualifications

- Strong organizational skills
- Writing/Communication skills
- Research experience, particularly with digital databases

Proposed Schedule

- This position will primarily be virtual with some onsite activities (pending BMA policies and guidelines this Summer).
- Available work days are Monday-Friday.
